

ANDRÉ CASTRO ENDS HIS CAREER

17 MAY 2025

“Doing good pays off. Being right pays off.”

This is how André Castro said goodbye to the pitch. The midfielder ends his career serving his favorite club, wearing the FC Porto B shirt and being team captain.

The midfielder had even scored a fundamental goal to keep FC Porto B up last week, in the victory over Portimonense.

Now he says goodbye with a result that he certainly didn't want, a defeat to Benfica B (1-4), but with an important message for his teammates and for anyone who wants to make a career in football: “It's worth working every day, wanting more, enjoying winning, without stepping on anyone... I always tell these players that we have to want it really badly.”
