Guzzo started, in what was the 11th game of the season for the midfielder. "It was a very important victory. We knew it was a decisive game for us. During the last few days, we got together and talked a lot. We knew it was necessary to change some things, especially in terms of attitude. I believe this was noticed on the field today. We are united and alive," he stated.

Next Thursday, Goiás will host Santos, in another very important game, against a direct rival trying to escape relegation: "This war is over. There is no time to celebrate. Santos is already knocking on the door. We have a very important game against them. We have to go in with the same attitude and the same levels of concentration that we had in that game."
